JOINT STIPULATION AND ORDER TO CONTINUE
SCHEDULING CONFERENCE AND TRIAL DATES

(SECOND REQUEST)

23 Plaintiffs and Counter-Defendants, Dennis R. Miller and Omni Block, (“Plaintiffs”) and 24 Defendants and Counterclaimants, Edward M. Weinmann and Advanced Masonry Consulting,
25 Inc., (“Defendants”) hereby stipulate to continue the scheduling conference date and trial date
26 currently set for January 14, 2025 and January 27, 2025, respectively. Specifically, the parties
27 seek to continue the current scheduling conference and trial date ninety (90) days until May 5,
28

2025 or as soon thereafter as the Court's calendar allows.

The need for the continuance is based on a serious medical event suffered by the wife of Plaintiffs' counsel. In general, Plaintiffs' counsel's wife suffered an epileptic seizure in late November 2024. (Dec. of Phillips at ¶2). Unfortunately, as a result of the epileptic seizure, Plaintiffs' counsel's wife lost her memory. (Dec. of Phillips at ¶2). Due to the prescribed treatment and recovery protocol, Plaintiffs' counsel will be spending a great deal of time and effort to assist his wife over the next few months making competent trial preparation based on the current trial date unrealistic. (Dec. of Phillips at ¶2).

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
